DINNER TO TRUSTEES

Given at Bethel by Domestic Science Class.

The teacher, Miss Mary Baynam, and the pupils of the Domestic Science class at Bethel College gave a dinner to the trustees last night and a few other friends of the College. It was served by the young ladies and was a triumph in culinary skill, showing the excellent instruction in that important department.

Girls Lose Out.

Atlanta, Ga., Dec. 10.—Two hundred girls lost their jobs today as a result of the Leo M. Frank case. The Pinkerton Detective agency was recently awarded $1,400 in a suit against the National Pencil company, where Frank worked. Pending an appeal the company began to move out its stock and the agency had the building locked up.

SINKS TO REST RIPE IN YEARS

Miss Ann Guynn Passes Away At The Age of Eighty-Five.

Miss Ann Guynn, aged 85 years, died at her home on the corner of Main and Eleventh streets, Thursday at 11 o'clock. She suffered from a complication of diseases and had long been in feeble health. Miss Guynn was the second child of Robert and Elizabeth Guynn, pioneers of Hopkinsville, and was born in the town in 1830. She lived with her brother and two sisters in the Guynn homestead, of one the landmarks of early days.

She was a life long member of the Christian church and was noted for her charity of goodness of heart. Her long life was devoted to works of benevolence and goodness.

She is survived by her brother, Robert Guynn, and three sisters, Mrs. Eliza Cayce, Miss Bettie Guynn and Mrs. T. M. Jones.

The funeral services were held at the Christian church yesterday morning at 10 o'clock, by Rev. J. N. Jessup. The burial was at Riverside cemetery.
